

*Clara
Barton*

February 13, 1940.

Dear Miss Conboy:

I regret that Mr. Epler's letter did not reach us in time to mail the blanks to him at South Carolina. This office was closed yesterday, Lincoln's Birthday, and Mr. Epler specified Tuesday, the 13th, as the time that he was leaving Charleston. I am, therefore, sending you a blank for the nomination of Miss Clara Barton which he wishes to send to this office. When you communicate with Mr. Epler, you might tell him that it is necessary to present a name but once in order to have it placed upon the ballot for consideration of the Electors. If he wishes to have Miss Barton's candidacy endorsed by others, it should be done by writing to the individual members of the College of Electors, for we, at this time, have no voice in the election and are estopped from making suggestions to the Electors.

I am returning an air mail stamp which Mr. Epler sent to us.

Sincerely yours,

Assistant to the Director.
